

I do not want the no call list to be changed. Please keep it as is.

The banks do not need to bother us with their sales pitches. If we want something from them, we will contact them ourselves. It has been a blessing to be on this list and finally have had peace and quiet through out our days and nights.

Please do not allow them to pressure you into this.

Thank You,

Kathleen A. Schneider